FROM THE CHAIRMAN'S DESK

Dear Reader,

It gives me immense joy and pride to address you through this sixth edition of the CPSM College of Education newsletter. The journey of our institution has been one of dedication, resilience, and remarkable achievements. Education is not merely the acquisition of knowledge but a transformative force that empowers individuals to build a brighter, more inclusive society. At CPSM, we believe in nurturing minds and cultivating values that transcend classrooms.

The challenges of the past years, especially the global pandemic, have tested our determination and adaptability. While the world faced unprecedented disruptions, our institution rose above the difficulties with unwavering commitment. We embraced change, transitioned to digital platforms, and ensured uninterrupted learning for our students. This resilience showcased the strength of our faculty and students, who worked hand in hand to turn challenges into opportunities for growth.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the staff, students, and stakeholders for their continued support and dedication. Together, let us move forward, building a legacy of excellence and service to society.

Chairman
Sh. Rajender Gahlot

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Reader,

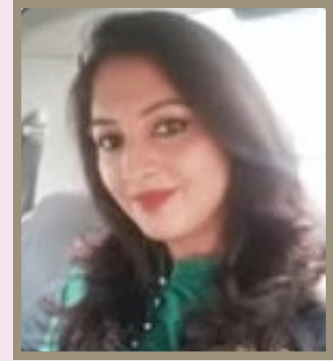

Education is the cornerstone of progress, a continuous and dynamic process that shapes individuals and societies alike. A nation's strength and future are deeply rooted in the quality of its education system, which empowers individuals to rise to their potential and contribute to the betterment of society. At the heart of this system lies the teacher—a guiding force, a planner, an executor, and a mentor, shaping young minds and building the foundation of our collective future.

CPSM College of Education takes immense pride in nurturing and preparing exceptional teachers who are not just educators but torchbearers of change. With state-of-the-art infrastructure, including advanced e-learning facilities, a well-equipped psychology laboratory, and various student-centric committees, our college fosters a holistic environment for academic and personal growth. Through dedication and innovation, CPSM has earned its reputation as a center of excellence, producing motivated and competent educators who leave a lasting impact wherever they go.

Always remember, no matter where you start, each day offers a new opportunity to grow and become the best version of yourself. Wishing you all the success in your journey ahead.
